

11:45, the 10:30 service ends; we should try and introduce the 16 guests (most of whom will probably be at the 10:30 service) to others during hospitality.

11:55, Mabel and I will try to move the guests into the Fireplace room.

12:00, Ian, with his booming voice, will announce that the newcomer brunch is beginning in the Fireplace room.

12:00, At least one of the clergy should be with us in the Fireplace room at noon, to help welcome guests and help us start the program.

12:00-12:10, Mabel will get anyone who doesn't have a name tag the materials to put one on. I will take photos of any of our guests for whom we don't already have a photo. Holly will encourage people to get some food.

12:10, a clergy member will say grace, and introduce the hosts

12:10-12:45, We will ask each of the guests to introduce themselves for just a minute (any longer and we'll have problems; if someone starts to go on, we'll need to move them along).

12:45-1pm, Getting involved: Lori hands out her two-pager on how to get involved in All Saints. Lori describes the opportunities. Lori introduces Jake, then Al, then Marilyn, to have each describe "their" ministry.

1pm-1:15, Information Packet distributed (do we have such a packet??) and description of how to join: directories, publications, membership, pledging. I assume Ian will do this?

1:15-1:30, questions and answers, discussion of All Saints.

1:30, fin.
